Boys and girls!
Presenting Bongo
the Circus Bear!

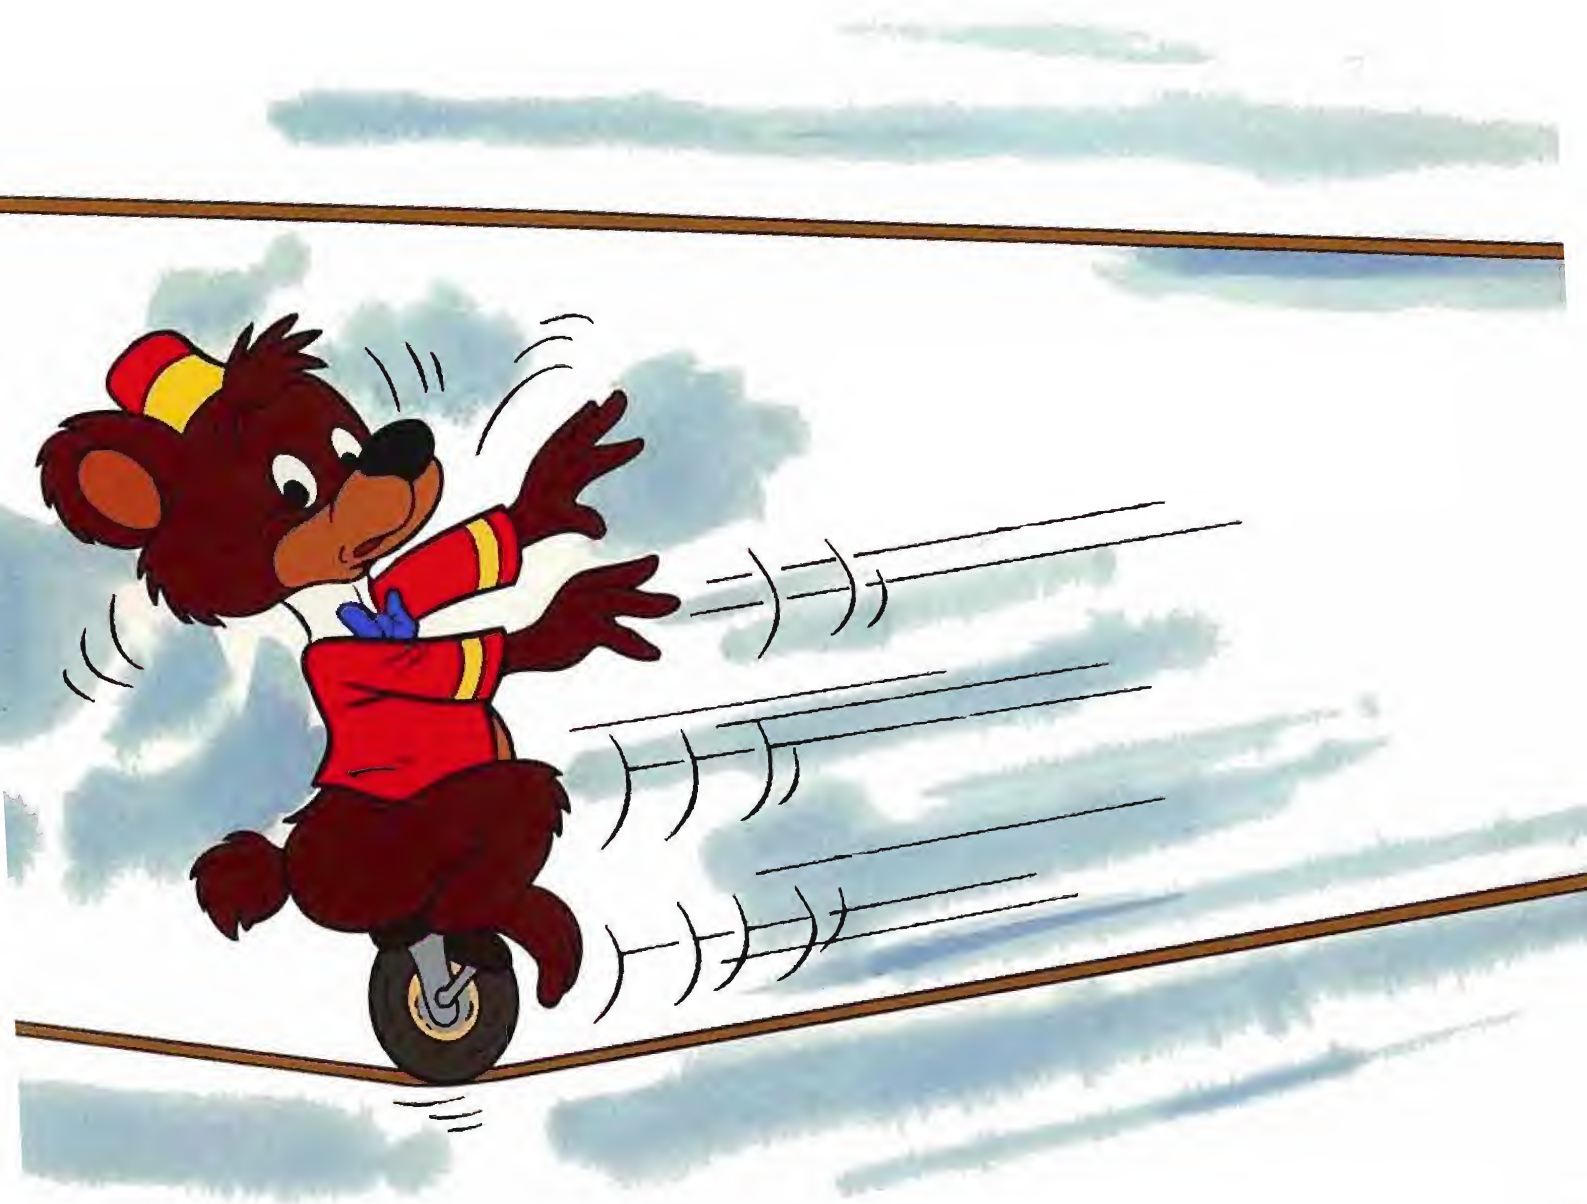

High, high up in the air
Rides Bongo the Circus Bear!
"Hi! Hi!" He waves hello
To all the people down below.

First he rides forwards...

And then, in the middle, the rope wiggles a little—and so does he!

and then he rides backwards—very carefully.

High, high up in the air
Rides Bongo the Circus Bear!
And the people down below
Cheer him as they watch him go!

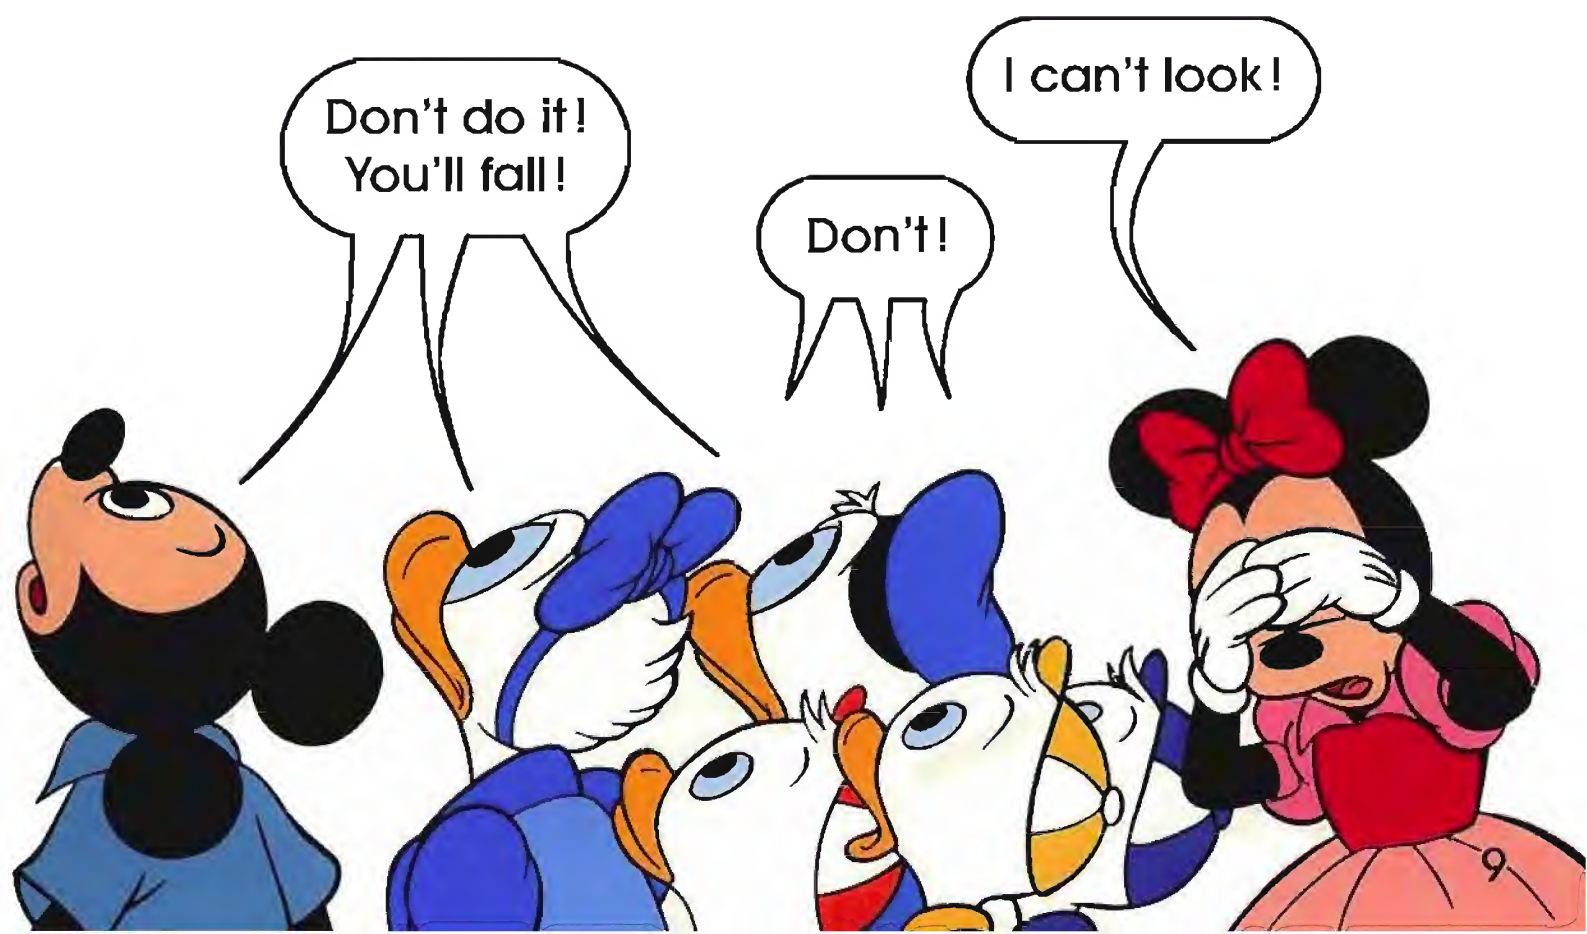

I can do that, too!

Goofy climbs higher and higher and higher!

Watch me, everybody!
Here I go!

Don't do it!
You'll fall!

Don't!

I can't look!

Goofy doesn't fall!
He does get to the other side!
Hooray for Goofy!

I can stand on my head.
Can you do that?

Of course I can!
I'm an acrobat!

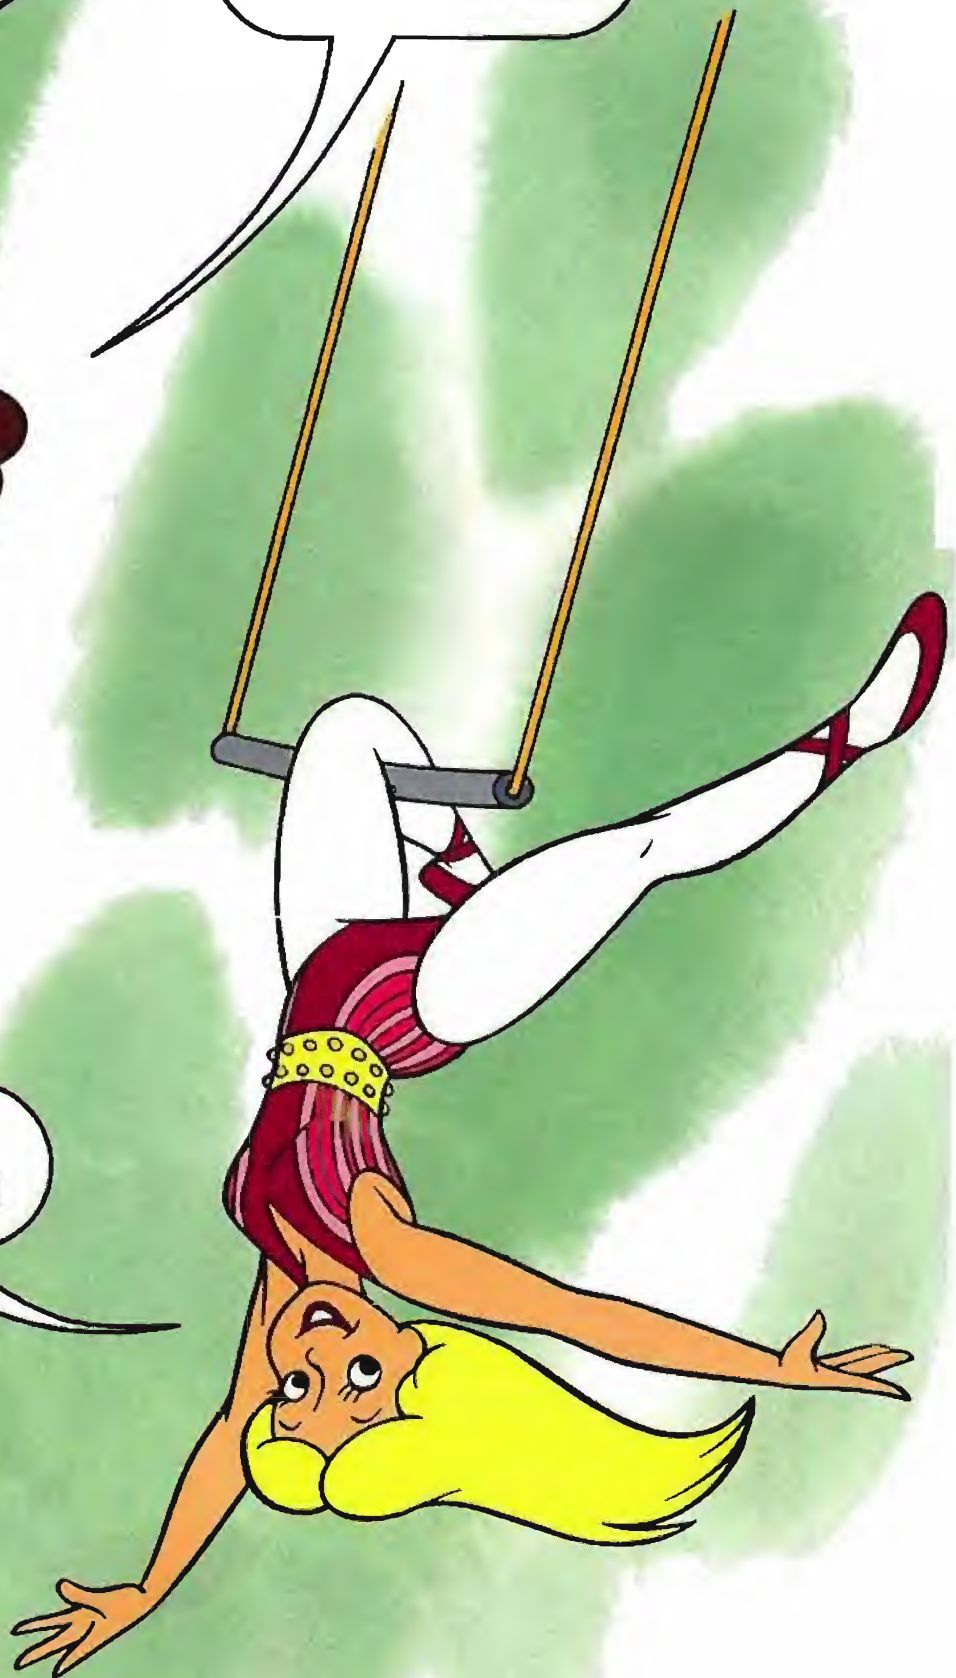

We can walk on our hands.
Can you do that?

Of course I can!
I'm an acrobat!

I can hang by one knee!

I can stand on one hand!

I can swing from a ring, and so can she!

He can fly
through the sky, and so can I!

We are acrobats!

Presenting the Strong Man!

Mr. Strong Man, can you lift
a hundred pounds?

I'm a strong man.
Of course I can lift
a hundred pounds!

"In my mouth..."

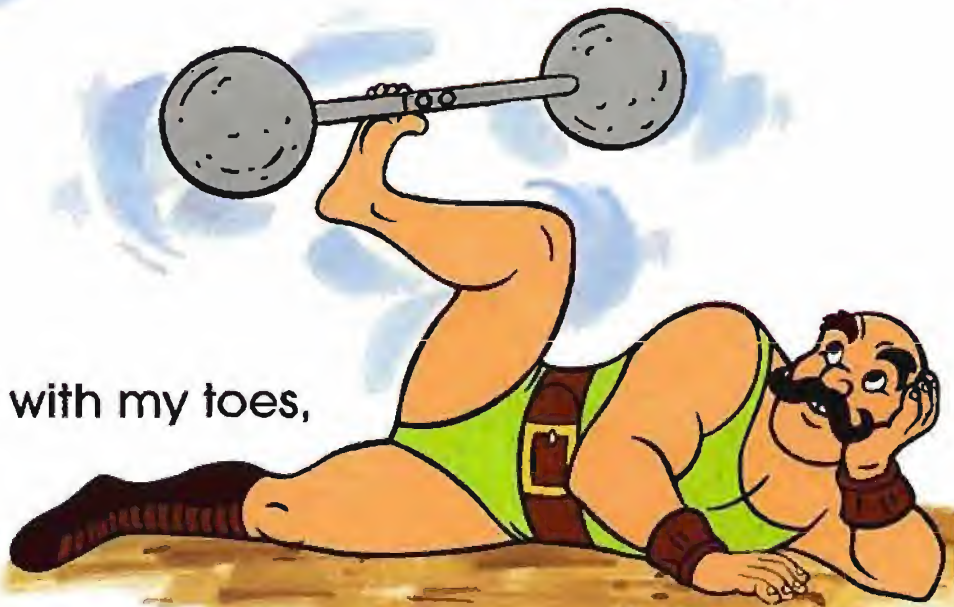

or on my nose,

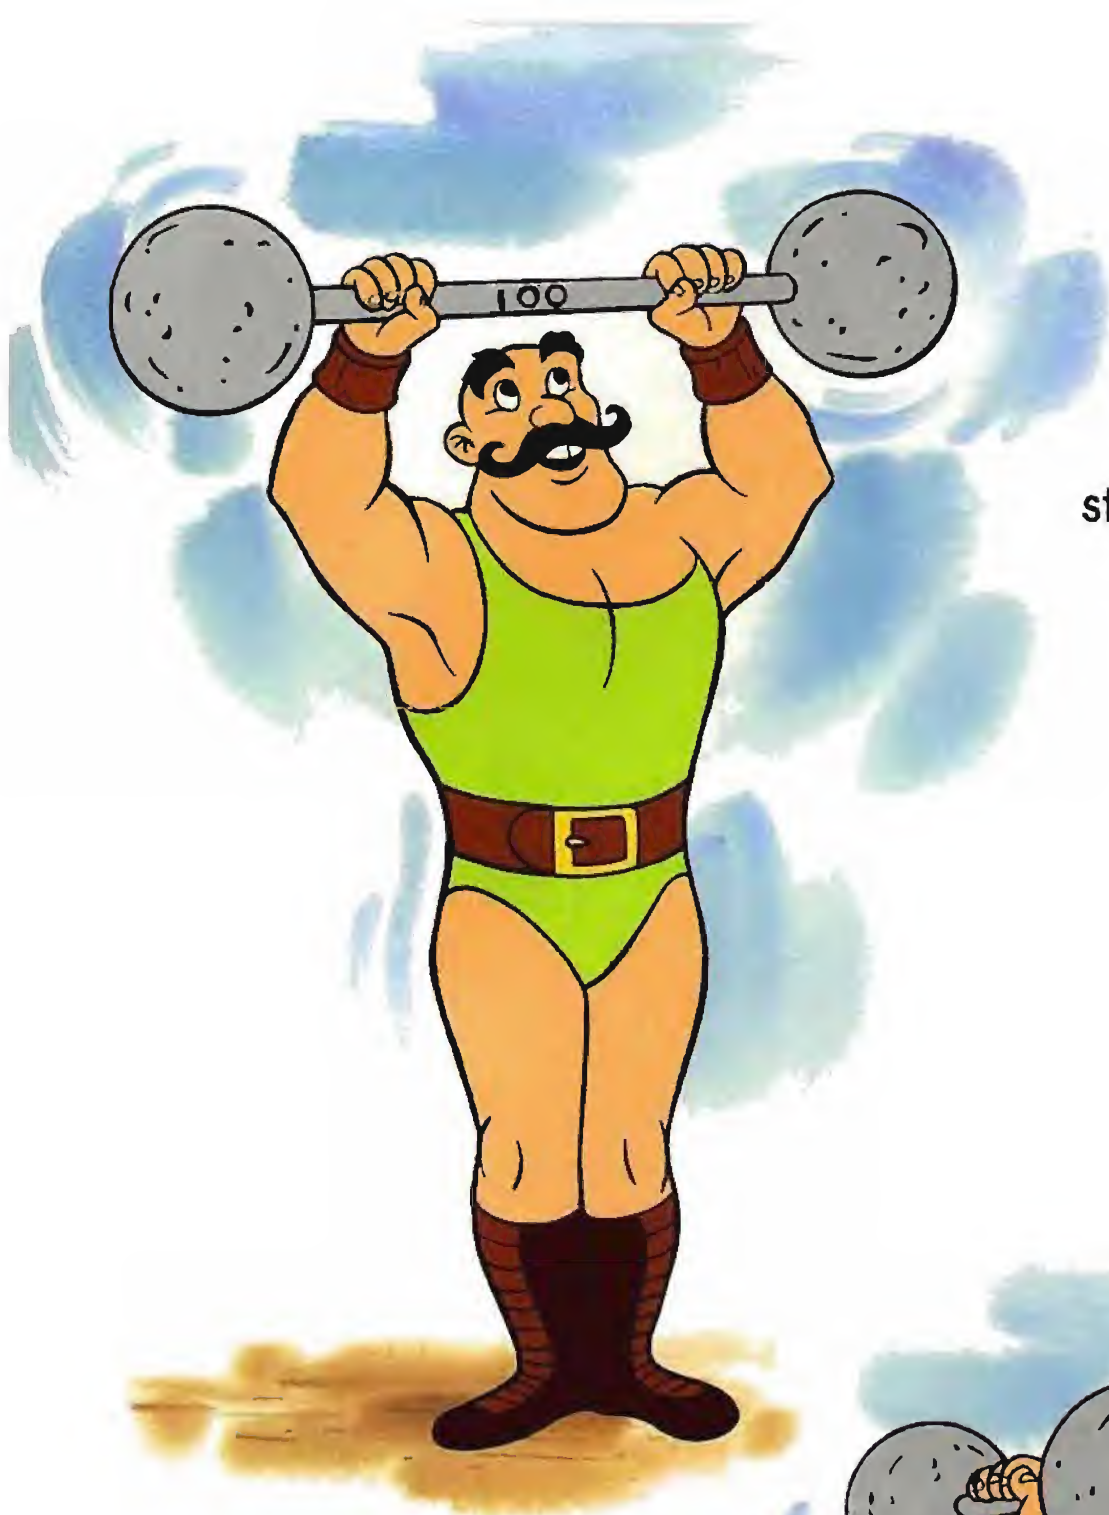

with one finger...

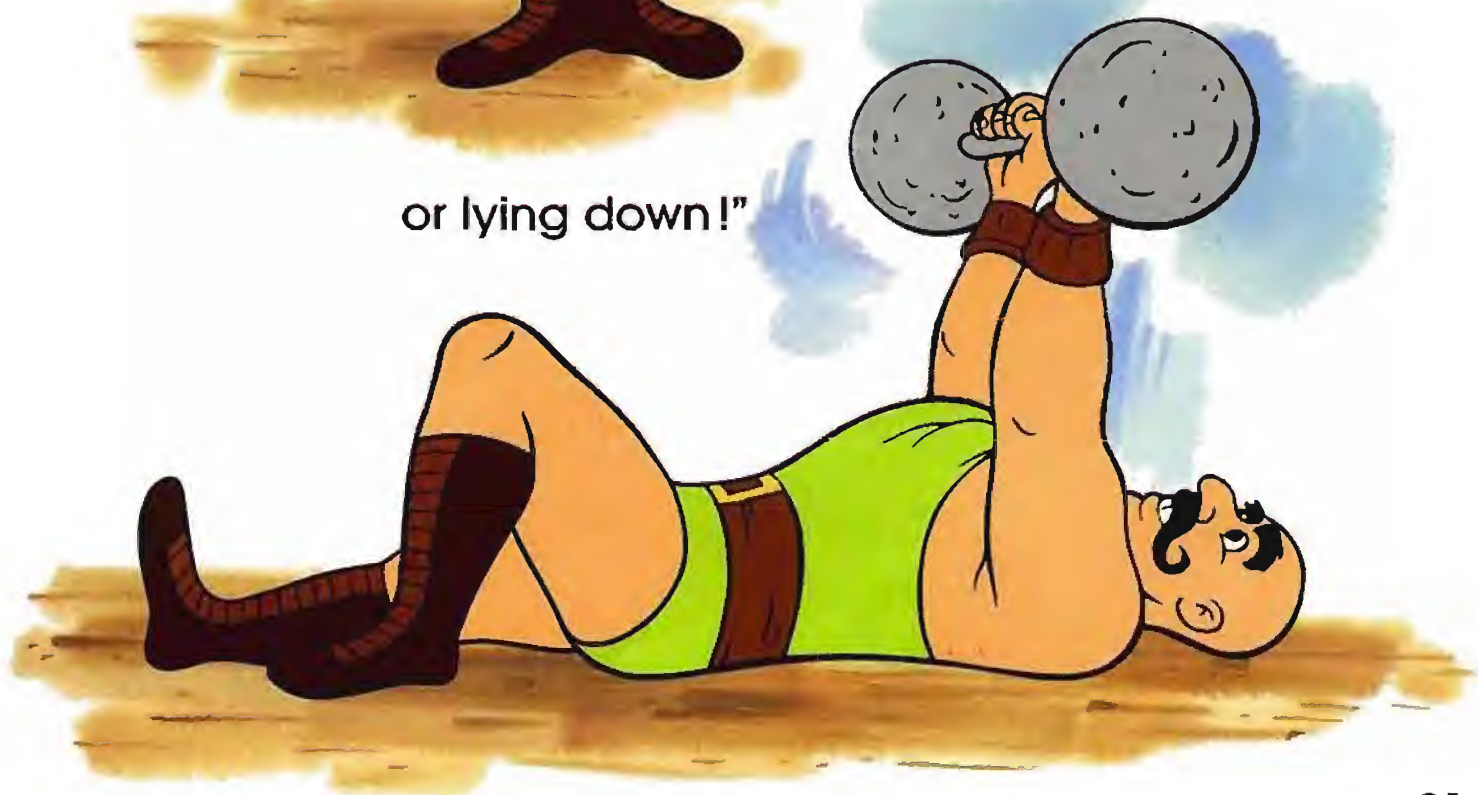

or with my toes,

standing up. . .

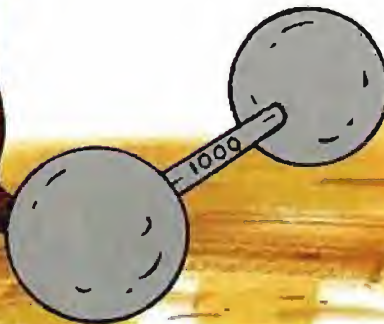

or lying down!"

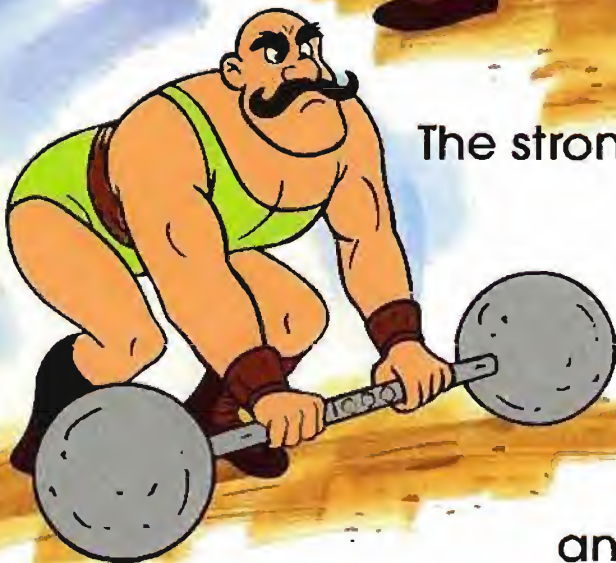

Can you lift
a thousand pounds?

The strong man tries...

and he tries...

and he tries...

...but he can't lift a thousand pounds!

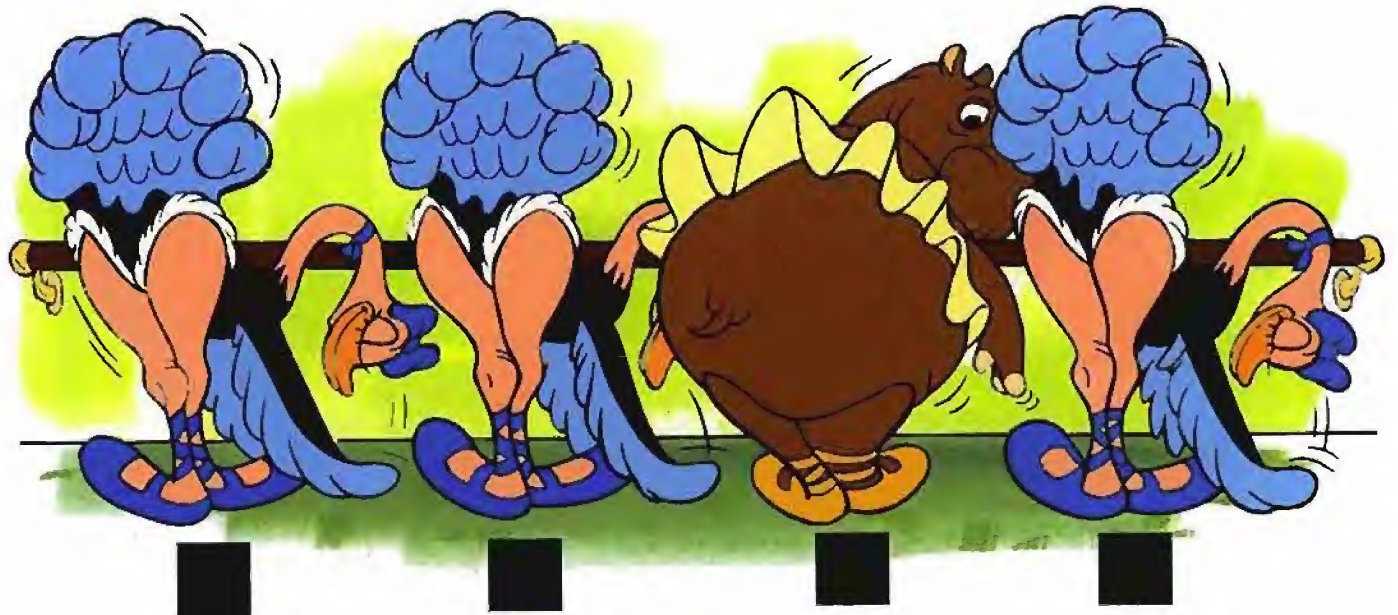

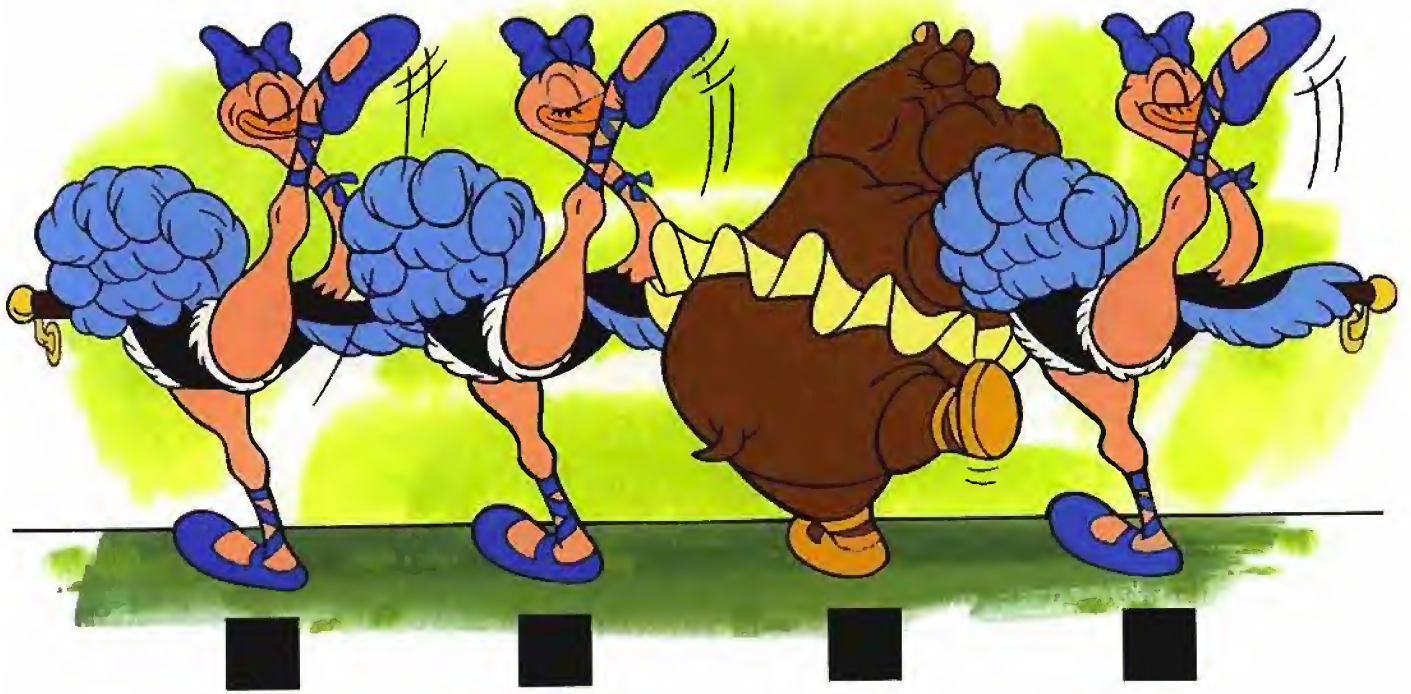

Grandma can stand on her head.
Scrooge can stand on his head.
Goofy can't stand on his head.

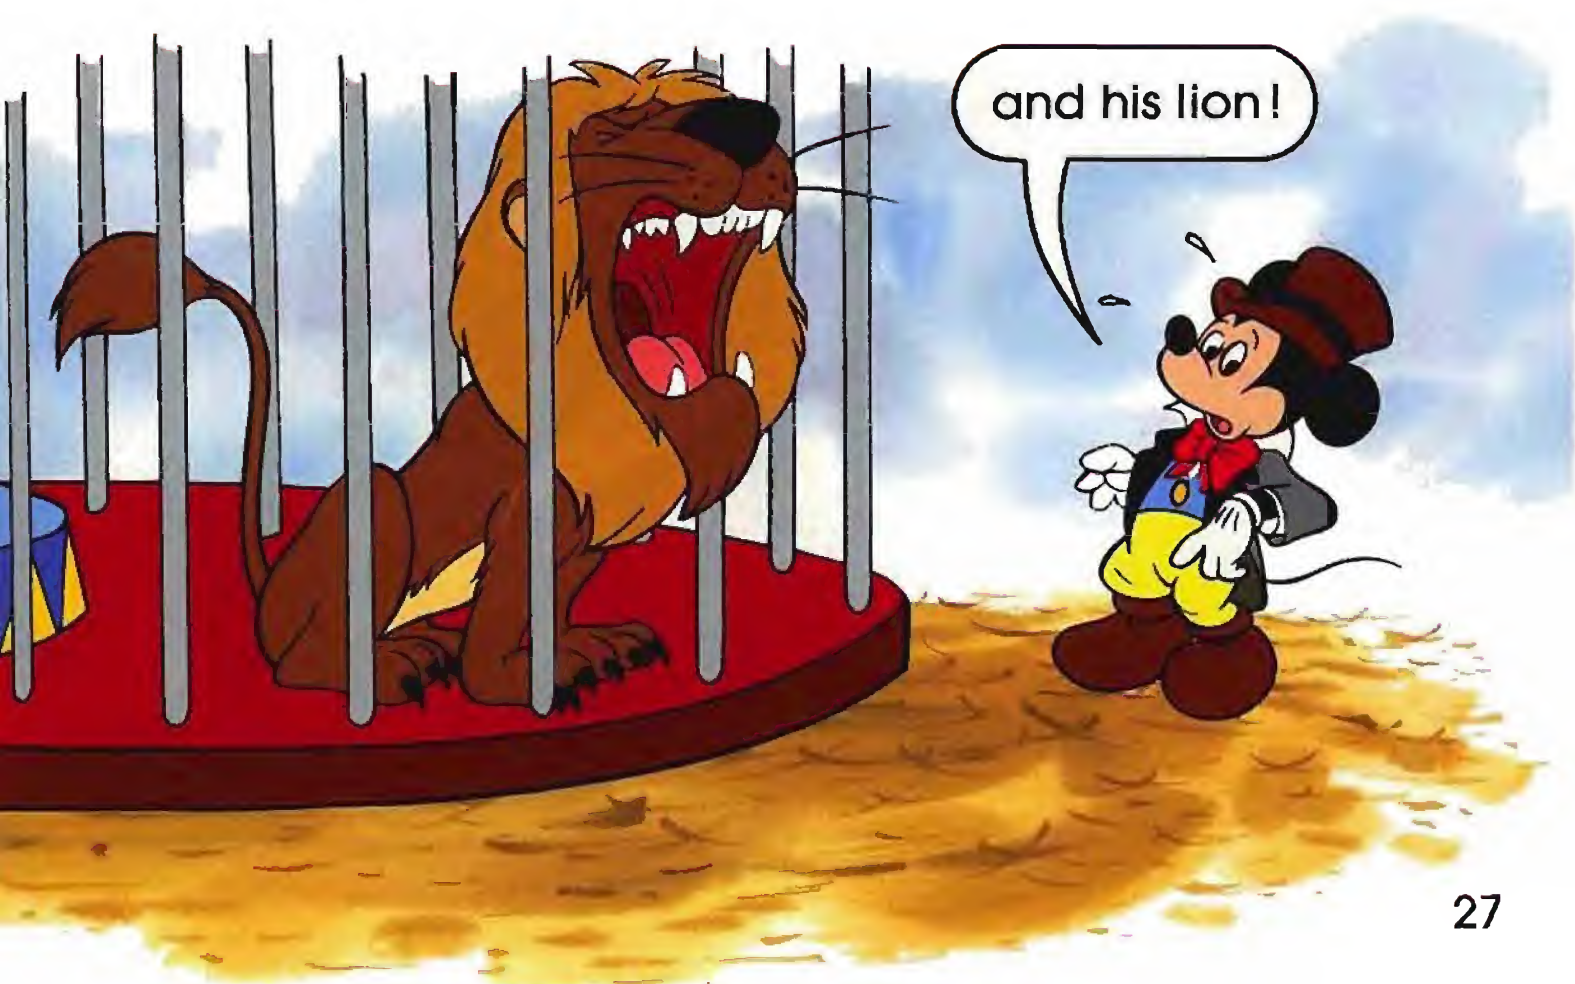

Can Goofy lift the hippo?

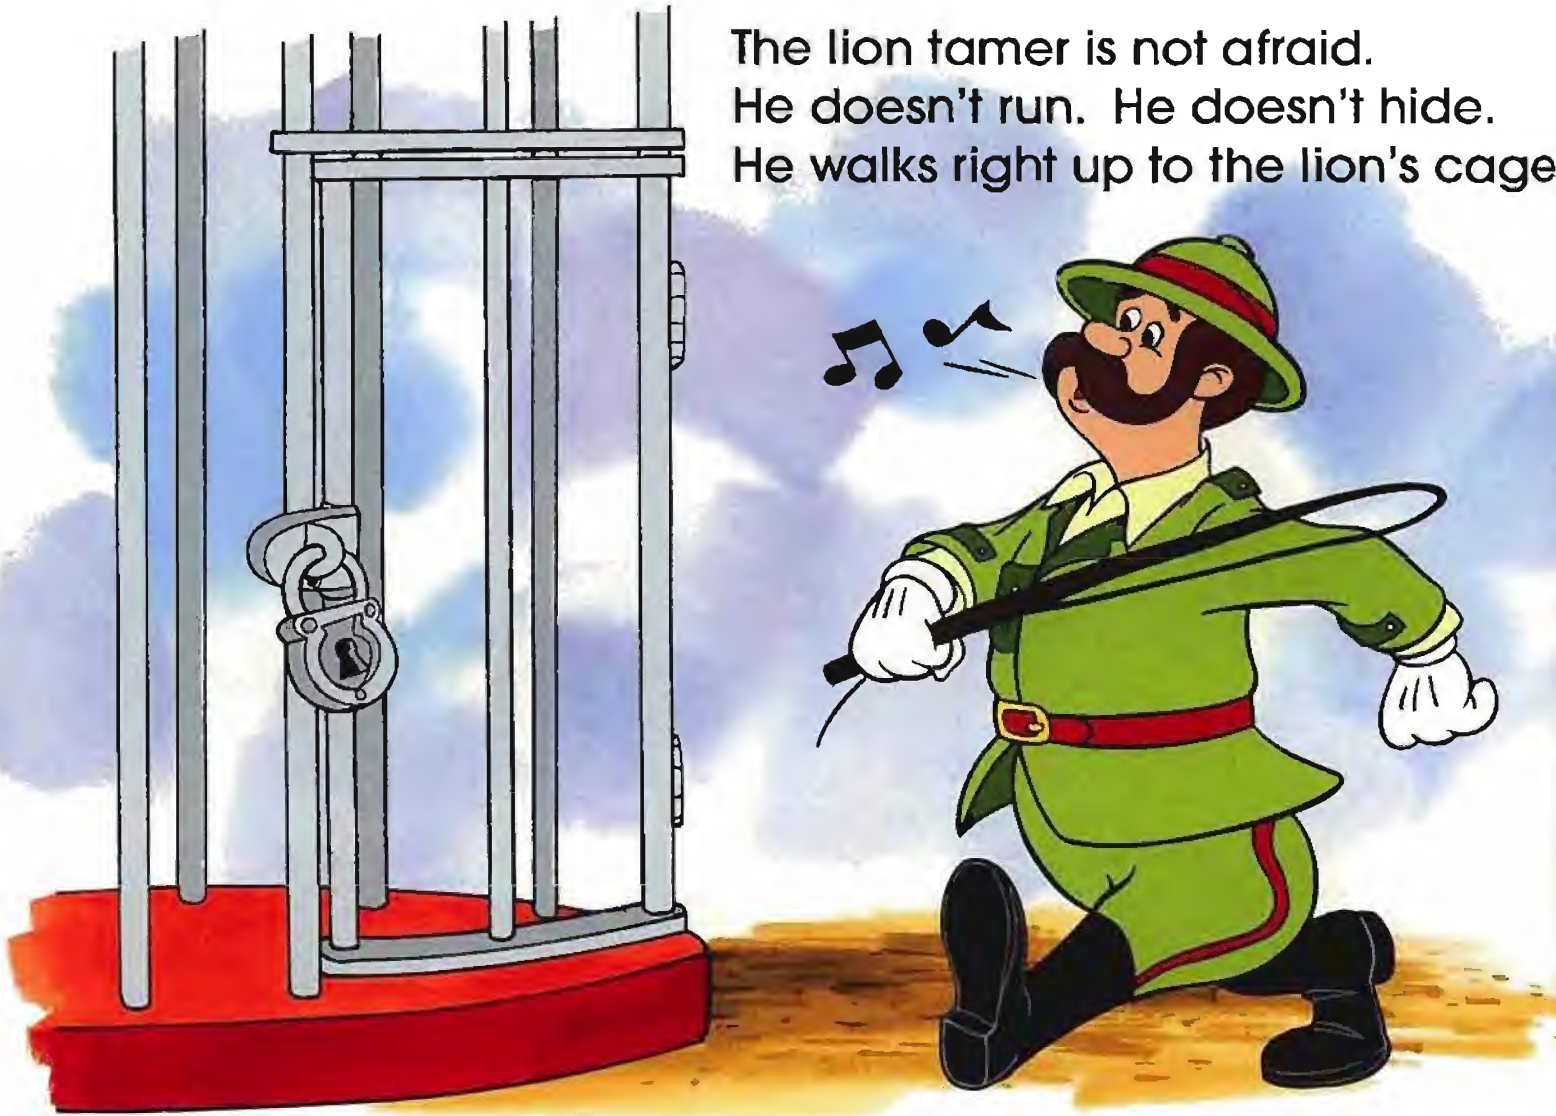

Can the hippo lift Goofy?

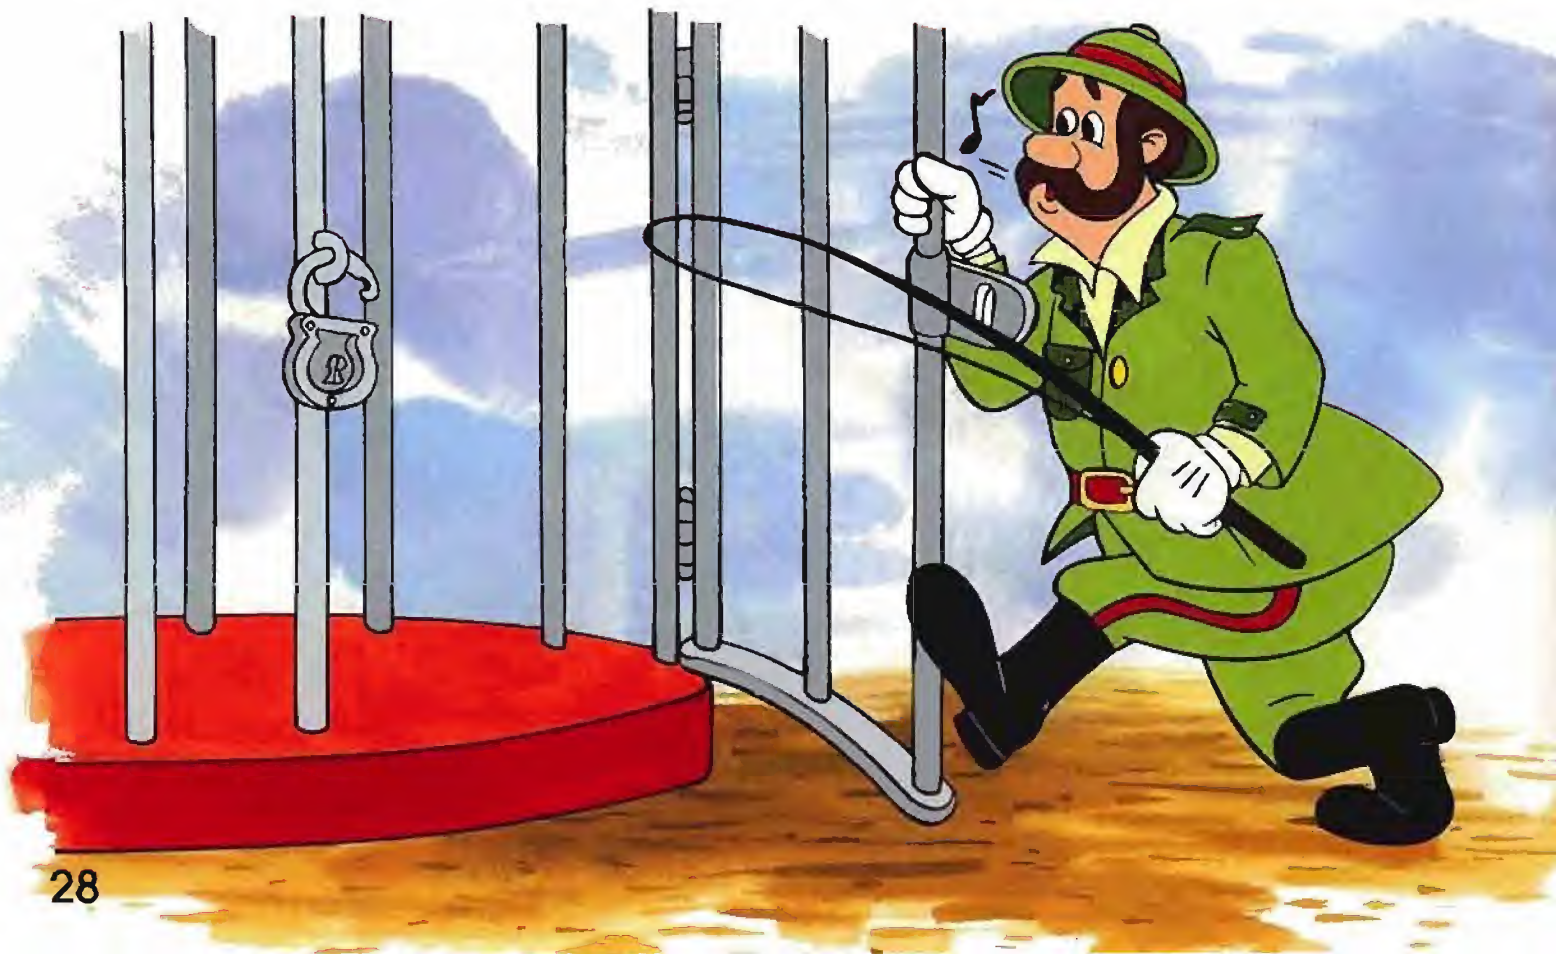

The lion tamer is not afraid.
He doesn't run. He doesn't hide.
He walks right up to the lion's cage

He opens the door and goes inside.

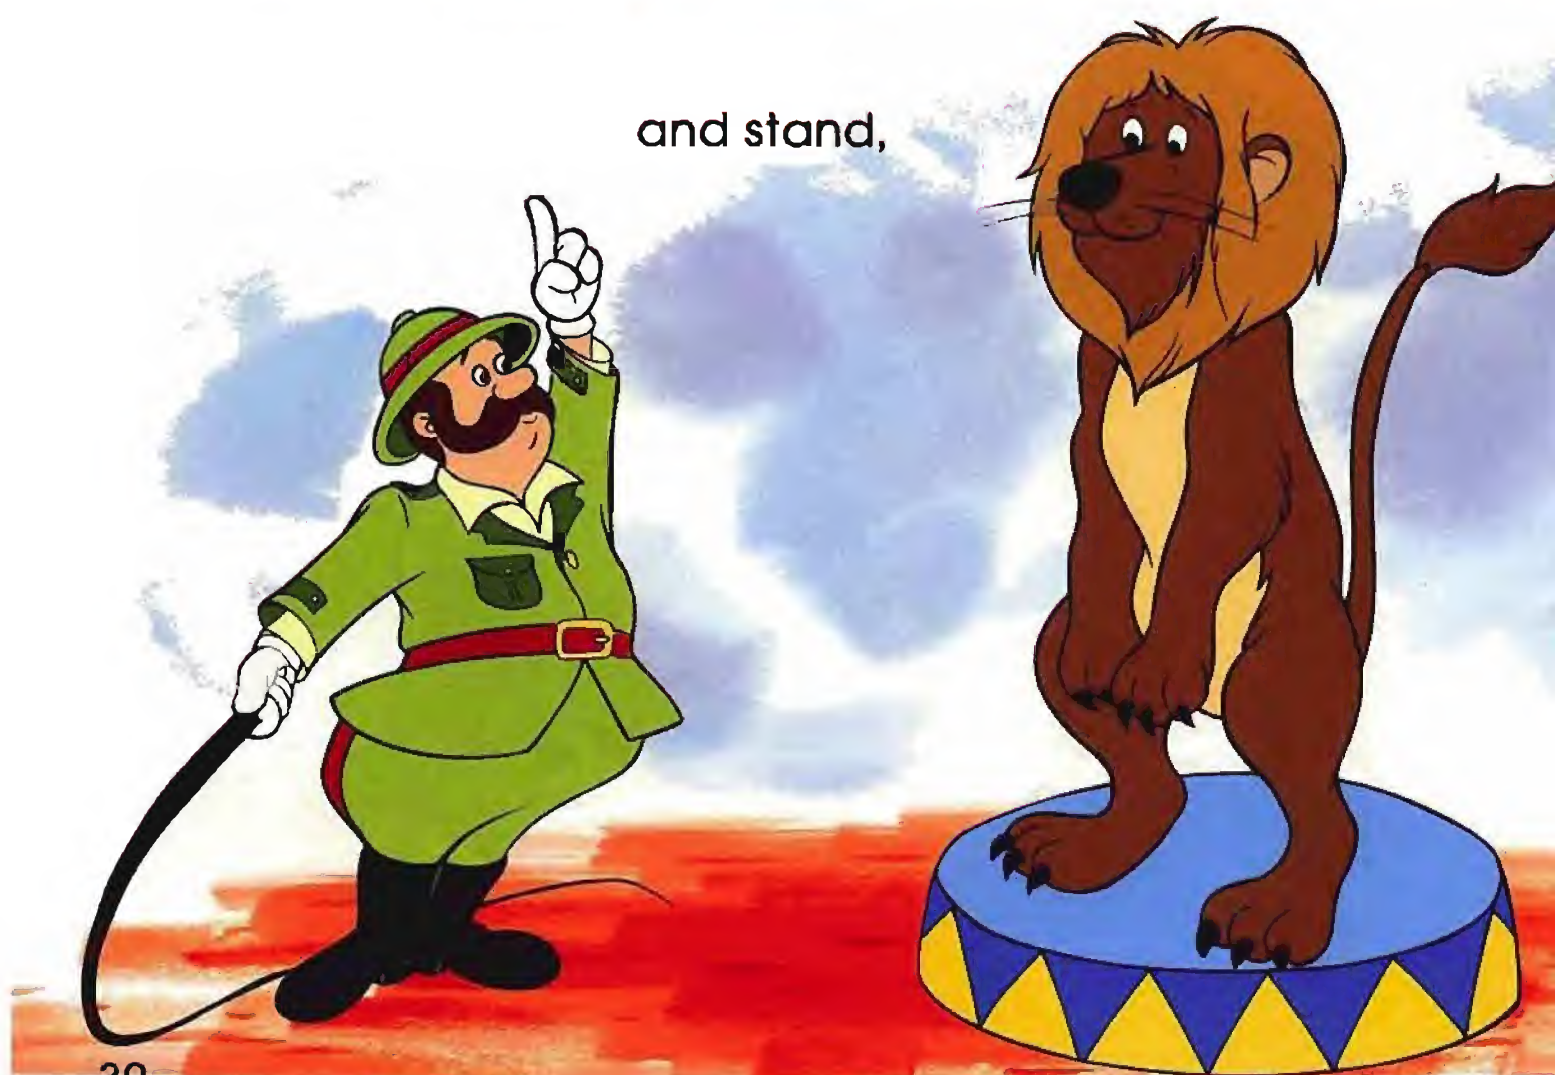

The lion isn't afraid at all.
He doesn't run. He doesn't hide.
He walks right up to the lion tamer
And opens his mouth up big and wide.

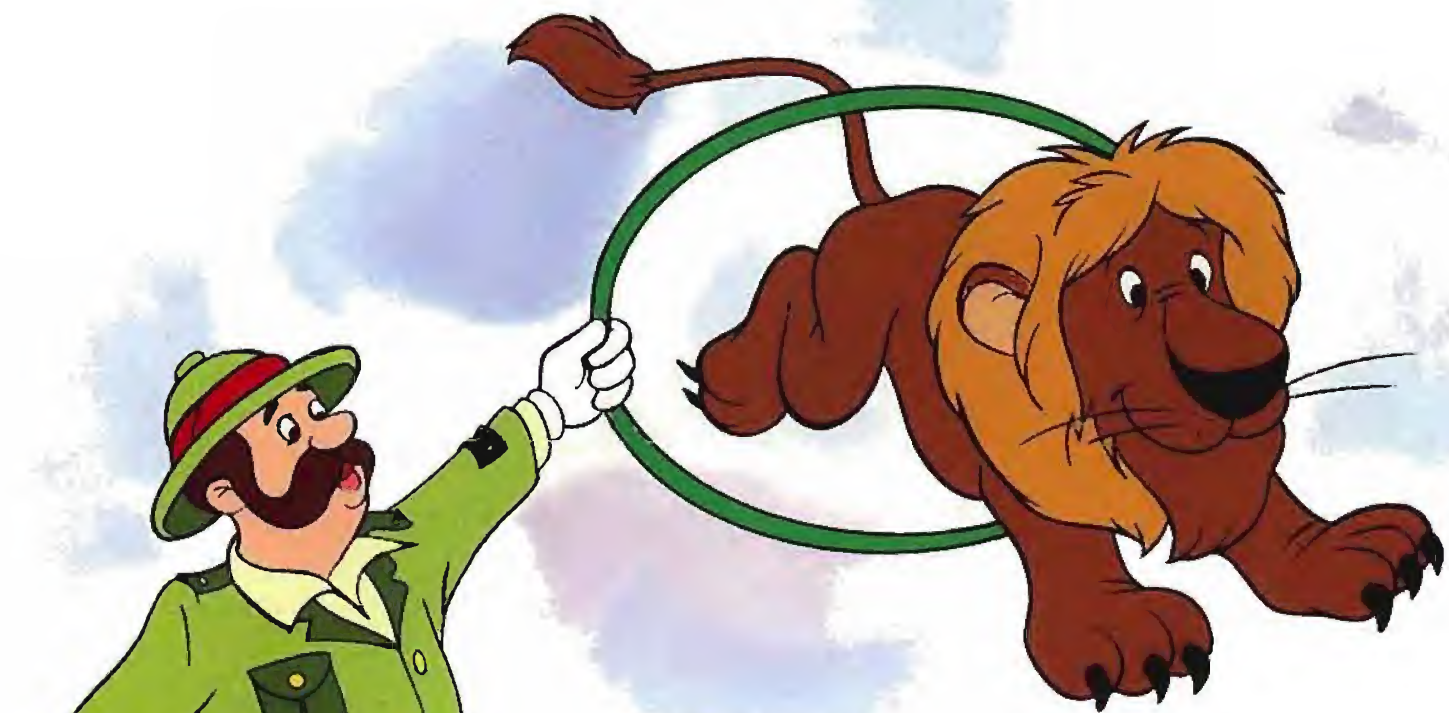

The lion tamer cracks his whip
And makes the lion do his tricks.

He makes the lion sit...

and stand,

jump through a ring,

jump over a stick.

The people clap. The people cheer.
The people shout, "Hooray! Hooray!"
The lion tamer comes out of the cage.

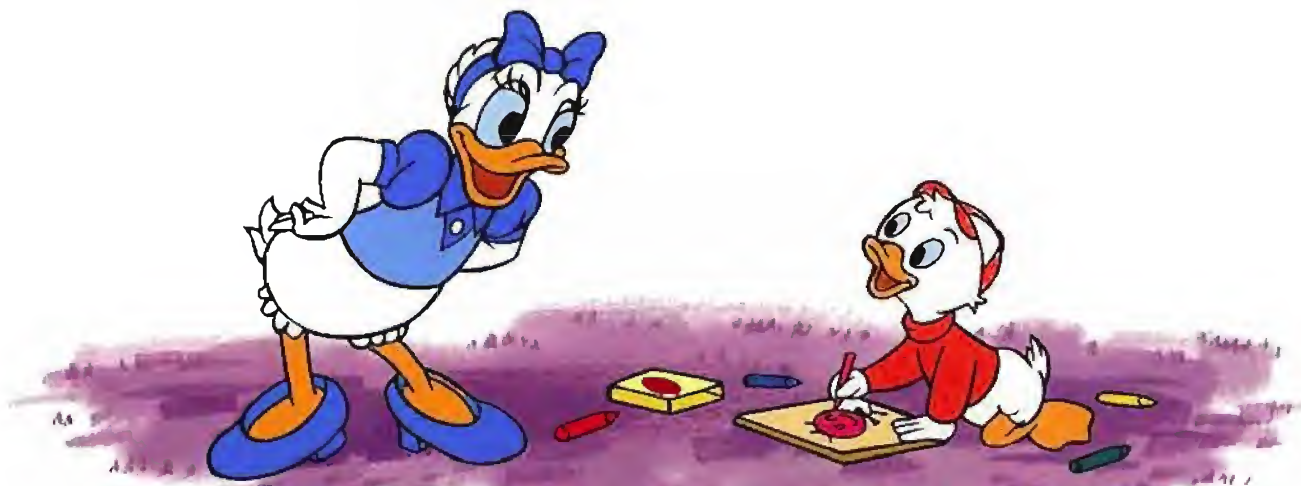

He takes a bow...

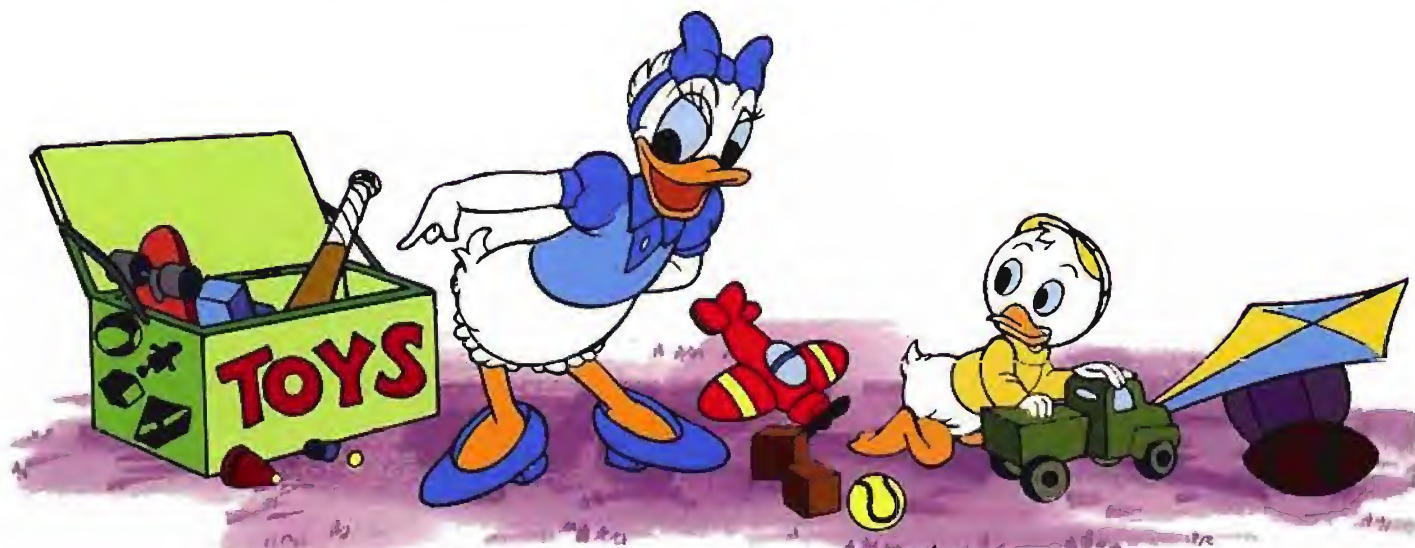

and walks away.

Daisy makes Huey, Dewey, and Louie clean up their room before they go to the circus show.

Daisy makes Huey pick up his crayons.

Daisy makes Dewey put away his toys.

Daisy makes Louie hang up his clothes.

Huey, Dewey, and Louie have finished cleaning up their room.

Daisy lets them go to the big circus show.

Presenting the Disappearing Cat!

Now, the Disappearing Cat is no ordinary cat!

Sometimes you only see his smile,
Sometimes only his ears.
Sometimes you only see his tail,
And sometimes...

...he disappears!

Where is that cat?
Where did he go?

I do not know!

I do not know!

Look!
Two eyes, a smile, and a nose!
He must be on my toes!

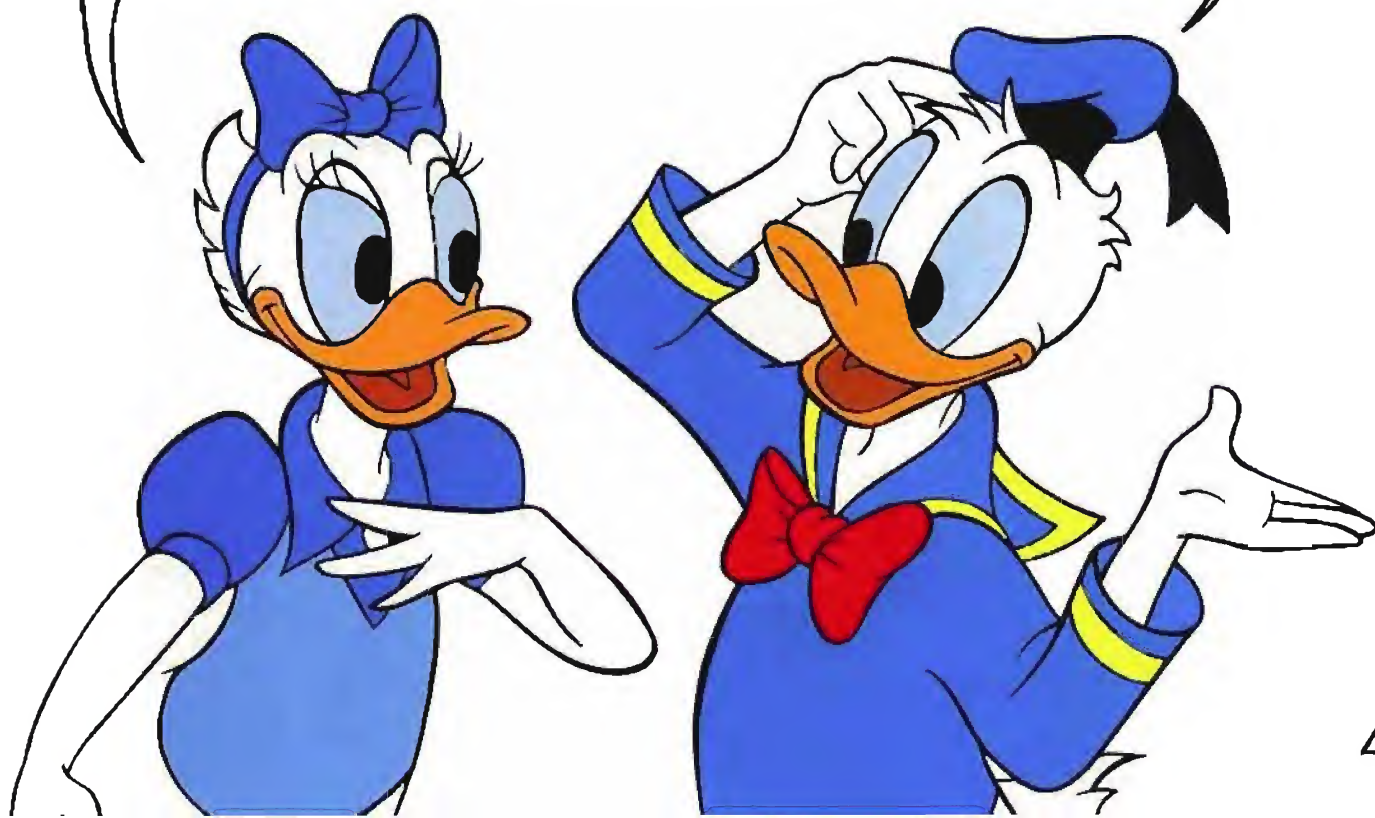

Look! He's disappeared again!

Where is that cat?
Where did he go?

I do not know!

I do not know!

Well, well, well!
Would you look at that?
He must be on my hat!

Where is that cat?

Some clowns make you happy.

Some clowns make you sad.

Some clowns make you smile and feel good.

Some clowns make you feel bad.

Some clowns are very tiny.
Some clowns are very tall.

Some clowns are funny and make you laugh.

Some are not funny at all.

Look at that clown
With his pants falling down
And his big ears that wiggle.

He makes me giggle!

Look at that clown
With his mouth in a frown
And a tear in his eye.

He makes me cry.

Some things make Pluto happy.

Some things make Pluto sad.

Some things make Pluto angry.
